Every human being has a right to...

- life, freedom and security
- humane treatment
- equal protection in law
- freedom of thought, conscience and religion
- rest and leisure
- take part in government
- access public service and social security
- marry and start a family
- be presumed innocent until proven guilty
- Work, for a just wage
- OWN property
- Freedom of opinion and expression
- free choice of employment
- an adequate standard of living
- just conditions at work
- join a trade union
- protection of privacy, family, home, correspondence and reputation
- freedom of peaceful assembly and association
- a nationality
- education
- asylum from persecution
- participate in cultural life