

Seeds of Peace

$1000 could enable eight conflict-affected families in Timor Leste to attend training sessions. There they can learn how to grow more vegetable crops, fruit trees, animal food, and timber and to how process foods and traditional medicine. With these skills and knowledge, they can feed their family, increase their income and create a healthier environment.

